1 Silver Article.

Arizona Miner of May 19th, we should judge that life in Ore Territory was quite dull. The Miner says:

"Prospecting and developments are progressing on interior lines. There are no mails, although some letters are received, but are there discoveries, developments or any of the evidences of civilization? Prospecting parties are organized to explore the White Mountains, where, according to Ashley, may be found large quantities of gold. It will be remembered, Ashley takes that the party from Austin succeeded in finding gold. That section of the country is represented as very desirable in every respect, and if the gold is found as expected, will become an attractive field for the adventurer. The Miner refers to the bill annexing a portion of Arizona to Nevada, and opposes it of course. It thinks that "the reason why Nevada asks for a portion of Arizona is, that the bottom of the Washoe mines has fallen out, and the only hope of the State's sustaining its credit is in the acquisition of some good mineral lands."—Republic.

The San Francisco News Letter says: We know of nothing more absurdly ridiculous than the lofty airs of our San Francisco "critics" in their notices of Edwin Forrest. Here is an actor of established fame, whose pre-eminent position as a tragedian two generations have acknowledged, and who has successfully passed the ordeal of the best and keenest metropolitan criticism of the United States and England—an actor who has for forty years devoted his best energies to the study and practice of his profession—an actor who is not merely an actor, but a gentleman of liberal culture and an accomplished Shakespearean scholar—yet every puny whipster connected with our local press who divides his intellectual energies between chronicling police items, describing dog fights and penning back notices of musical and theatrical performances, assumes to instruct him as to the proper reading of this or that passage, and even to give him lectures in elocution!

A Latin English work on Genesis a small portion of the gems now worn are genuine. The diamond mines of Golconda have given out, and those of India are rapidly failing. The scarcity of real gems has been met by the ingenuity of counterfeiters, who manufacture the spurious gems that frequently deceive expert connoisseurs.

The Daily Union Vedette.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 13 1866.

LET JUSTICE DECIDE.

Our eastern exchanges bring us the published telegraphic correspondence between Gen. Sherman and Brigham Young recently given without comment in our columns. Thereto certain statements are put forth over the signature of the latter touching the veracity of some persons in this community, whom he classes under the name of speculators.

It is difficult to discover the connection between any parties here, to whom that definition would apply, and that portion of the community, known as Gentiles, otherwise loyal American citizens, from whom have emanated the boldest opposition to the dominant and overbearing Hierarchy, as well as the exposing revelations of corruption and crime for which many of the church leaders are held responsible before the world. The statement ascribing such opposition and such exposures, as they are therein asserted, to a desire for the continuance of troops in this vicinity, in order to reap benefits of speculation from Government contracts, is simply ridiculous, and none know its utter untruth more perfectly than the person over whose name that statement was made.

The truth is that the VEDETTE has been, and is, the exponent of opinions held by the loyal people of Utah. In its columns have appeared the charges of disloyalty, of evil practices, of high crimes and misdemeanors, against persons sitting in high places in the Mormon Church. There they will continue to appear until a fitting opportunity be found to give those charges more definite, legal form, and afford persons denounced therein as criminal, impartial trial. Men of influence, it is true, have presented evidence to the Government of the commission of particular crimes, other men of influence have been here for purposes of observation and have added their testimony, all concurring with averments made long ago by the VEDETTE. Therefore, if the charge of calumniation can be placed anywhere, it is against the writers for this paper. The entire press of the country quotes from our columns, and, thus, by means of this journal, is popular opinion, is Congress being awakened to the necessity of employing prompt and stringent measures to enforce obedience to, and punishment for offences against, the laws in this Territory.

But can any one truthfully affirm—does any sensible man believe that we are influenced by such motives as Brigham Young charges against his opponents in the published dispatch to Gen. Sherman? Every man in this community, capable of knowing anything of the matter, knows that statement to be utterly without foundation—no one more certainly than he who signed it. It was intended for effect elsewhere, and, supported as we are chagrined to remember it was, may have accomplished its purpose to some extent.

Be this as it may, we assert, without fear of contradiction, that the dispatch alluded to was as deceitful in design as it is false in fact. The astute diplomatist who subscribed his name thereto, talks of slanders, which, in any other community, would subject the offenders to the attention of a vigilance committee. We know very well that he keeps creatures in his service who would, at a word from him, raze to the ground any building in which this, or any other paper, adverse to his designs, might be published.

Judging by what has been, we do not doubt that they would do that, or any other vile and unlawful deed, which the interests of an unscrupulous master might require at their hands. Indeed, that is one of the most serious charges we make against him—that is the evil power we are laboring to overthrow.

Nor does the fact that this paper has not been destroyed, that its managers has not been insulted and maltreated, deserve any consideration, for it would have all been done long ago, had not the effect of such measures been dreaded. Brigham Young had the good sense to see that the influence of such procedure would have gone farther and faster than anything we might hope to say—would have proved all that we had ever claimed. Hence, his boasted clemency was but revolting sufferance of that which he could not, because he dared not, prevent.

But to the question of veracity as between the Gentiles and Mr. Young—let the verdict be with the public until a more competent tribunal shall decide. He has been accused here and elsewhere, of the permission, which under the circumstances, amounts to commission, of high crimes and misdemeanors. He has been charged with living daily in open, flagrant and criminal violation of well-known laws of the land, and of inciting many others to the same evil course. It is affirmed that he has disseminated pernicious doctrines, obnoxious to the principles of Christianity, destructive of morality and dangerous to the public peace. It is claimed that by his iniquitous, public teachings, if not by direct mandate, he has caused to be inaugurated a system of murder, whereby divers innocent persons have lost their lives at various times and places in this Territory. And it is further charged that he has never taken any adequate measures to clear himself from just suspicions of complicity in such crimes, by bringing, or even attempting to bring, the perpetrators to condign punishment therefor, he having the power, if he possessed the will, to do. It is charged that, knowing to whom the crimes are imputed, he has known, and knows to this day, still resides in Utah, by common report and suspicion and that, so far from seeking to arrest them for trial, he has from time to time held relations with them of such intimate character as might justly confirm any unfavorable suspicions entertained by persons cognizant of the circumstances.

Such in general terms are the charges on which Brigham Young stands arraigned at the bar of public opinion. Are they true or false?—are they calumnies? We do assure any whom it may concern that there are extant accusations, which we have seen, of a more specific character and more damnatory than anything herein alledged. But we refrain from making more particular mention of them now for reasons not necessary to mention. Let it suffice that all will be attended to at a fitting time, and, when justice is satisfied, we shall be, not before. Until her demands shall be heard we will never hold our peace—to the impartial decrees of her tribunals we will submit in cheerful silence.

All we have ever asked was investigation into the truth of these allegations and on this we shall still insist. If they be calumnies the sooner that fact is authoritatively made known the better for all concerned. But, if they be calumnies, why have they never been refuted? Why such efforts to prevent the employment of means adequate to the emergency in making sure the demands of justice? Why has its course been impeded heretofore in attempted investigations? Why has the VEDETTE never been prosecuted for its bold assurance in pleading, on behalf of the nameless dead, for vengeance upon the guilty living, and pointing the finger of accusation to the responsible criminals?—Why talk of "vigilance committees" when the courts, from whose judgments surely no Mormon should shrink, if we are willing to stand the ordeal, are open to purge from reproach the fame of slandered innocence?

These are serious questions which we leave our readers to answer for themselves and us. Even conscious guilt may endure accusation with a fortitude equal to innocence itself, because that weapon does not kill, but it shrinks instinctively from the cold stare of an unsympathizing crowds, the searching gaze of the ministers of justice, the crucial tests, the inquisitorial questioning of the court-room.

Eastern Items.

"Admiral" Semmes is in Washington, after a pardon.

Seventy thousand persons leave New York on Sunday to "get a drink" in Jersey.

Forty-four hundred and seventy liquor licenses have been granted in New York City.

The New York Academy of Music is to be re-built. The building was insured for $150,000.

Gen. Logan, nominated for Congress in one of the Illinois districts, has declined to accept.

It is rumored that Senator Doolittle will succeed Minister Clay at the Court of St. Petersburg.

The Portland papers state that in that city of 30,000 inhabitants there are over 600 dram shops. Where is the Maine law?

A fire at St. Paul, Min., on the 25th ult., destroyed ten or twelve buildings, with a loss of between $50,000 and $60,000.

Col. John A. Martin, editor of the Atchison Champion has been appointed as a member of the Board of Visitors to West Point.

Quite an excitement was created in New York lately by the reported discovery of an oil spring in Sixty-second street in that city.

The great sunspension bridge over the Mississippi at Cincinnati will cost $1,750,000. There are 32,000 perches of masonry in the work.

A powerful lobby interest from Pennsylvania, with ex-Senator Cameron as leader, is at Washington, to influence legislation in favor of protection.

It is currently reported that a number of capitalists residing in Minneapolis, Min., propose purchasing the St. Anthony Falls Water Power at $350,000.

Jeff. Davis has been allowed the freedom of Fort Monroe on his parole.—Messrs. Shea and O'Connor, his counsel, are allowed free access to the Fort, and private interviews at any time.

It is reported the Chicago Republican, one of the strongest opponents of the President's policy in the West, will change front. Its business manager, and Chas. A. Dana, its editorial conductor, will retire.

The New York Express states that from January to the time of the Eastport fiasco, $180,000 were received by O'Mahoney, of which $50,000 were sent to Ireland, the remaining $130,000 being spent here.

It is stated that Mrs. Lincoln is about to purchase a residence in Chicago for the sum of $14,000, and that Robert Lincoln is about to be admitted to the bar and enter upon the practice of his profession in that city.

ROBBERIES ABOUT VIRGINIA.—The Enterprise in nearly every issue chronicles some act of highway robbery in the vicinity. Probably since the killing of the San Juan stage robbers, the foot pads of California have crossed the mountains.

A Precious Blasphemy.

The Deseret (Salt Lake) News of Sunday furnishes the public with a precious morsel in the shape of blasphemy. In it we learn that [illegible] Mormons have been [illegible]. After reading this plaint we acquired of a friend what it all meant. His reply was that it was not customary to publish an account of excommunications, but that Judge Appleby had associated with the "Gentiles," and had ungodly in general, that he had once made a short speech at Camp Douglas! This, our informant thought, was considered the unpardonable sin among the brethren, hence the action taken last January, but held under advisement until warmer weather!

Mr. Long, it is said, was disfellowshipped for two crimes so heinous that the "Church Organ" dare not publish them. 1st. He rented his house to the U. S. Quartermaster some time last winter; and 2d, he acknowledged in open court that he was a member of the "Young Men's Social Club." Mr. Ross' report says, was also a member of this "abominable" club.

All these gentlemen, we are informed, have been in the Mormon Church more than twenty years; all of them have been preachers or missionaries not only in the States but in Europe, and done considerable in the way of proselyting, collecting tithing and defending polygamy. Understanding that Mormon Elders travel and preach with the hope of a future reward, when the "kingdom is built up," we suppose these once indefatigable zealots may consider themselves paid off!

Would'nt it be a good thing for Brigham to call to account several of his sons, and one or two of his nephews, who are known to be honorary members of more than one of the "detestable" clubs?

For the edification of the readers of the VEDETTE, we give space for this interesting

Albertina Jaborowskey was divorced from John Jaborowskey by Judge Dwinelle. Common property was set aside for her use.

The Supreme Court has affirmed Judge Pratt's decision in the case of Thomas Byrnes, the murderer of Charles T. The negro church on Dupont street, between Greenwich and Filbert, has been complained of as a nuisance by the neighbors, who cannot sleep of nights on account of the yelling and shouting during the revival season now at its height.

Private failures announce the failure of the Bank of London, of which Donohoe, Kelly & Co. are agents. Its business was transferred to the Consolidated Bank, which will receive remittances and pay drafts. Persons who have transacted London business through Donohoe, Kelly & Co. will not lose.

The new Merchants' Exchange, corner of Washington and Battery streets, was thrown open for public inspection today.

THE Salt Lake VEDETTE is bold, fearless and outspoken in the cause of virtue and morality. The follies, vices and consequent miseries of multitudes at Salt Lake City, as displayed in that valuable paper, are so many beacons continually burning to turn others from the rock on which they have been shipwrecked. There is no better moralist needed at the Great Salt Lake City than the VEDETTE. It was the celebrated Bishop Hore's own opinion that there was no better moralist in any community than the newspaper.—S. F. Flag.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

Pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its Extensive circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the best publishing facilities of any paper in the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous Territories.

We never display advertisements in double columns. With one exception, abroad, please observe the rule. It will save them and us considerable annoyance and correspondence.

PERSONAL.—Yesterday we met Mr. E. McLaughlan, one of the leading merchants of Virginia City, Nevada, who is spending a few days in our city.

McGOWAN & LENTHAL are selling goods as cheap as ever at the Cosmopolitan Auction House, opposite the Pacific Telegraph Office. Give them a call.

DIED.—At Camp Douglas, U. T., June 12th, 1866, Mr. E. T. Lewis, of Woodbridge, San Joaquin county, California. Stockton papers please copy.

MR. WM. REYNOLDS, the energetic and popular superintendent of the Holladay Stage Line, arrived in our city yesterday afternoon.

WE direct attention to the San Francisco advertisement of Livington & Hickey importers and dealers in fine brandies, whiskies, wines and liquors. P. J. Hickey is well known to our merchants. Eugene Crowe, Esq., agent of the firm is now in this city.

From Idaho.

The people of Idaho are in a muddle as to whether the capital is at Boise or Lewiston....The Centerville mines are paying well....There is nothing new from the Indian country....Business is brisk at Idaho City....The road between Boise and Idaho Cities has been much improved.

MR. T. ORNSTEIN respectfully announces to the citizens of Camp Douglas that he has established a market for the sale of the choicest of fresh meats in the old Camp Store, now called the Camp Douglas Meat Market, where he will be ready to supply all who wish to favor him with their patronage, from 7 a. m. to 10 a. m. daily. See advertisement.

"DUKE GWIN" IN NEW ORLEANS.—Ex-Senator Gwin, for eight months confined in Fort Jackson, came up the city last evening, in pursuance of General Sheridan's order, in these words: "Release Dr. Gwin, and order him to report in person to me, in New Orleans." On arriving, Dr. Gwin reported at General Sheridan's head and asked on what condition he was released; to which Gen. Sheridan replied, "On ordinary parole," which he will give to-morrow. In the meantime he is joyously visiting his friends and relatives. His immediate family is in Italy. One of his daughters was recently married in Paris.—New Orleans Picayune, May 17th.

FROM THE RIVER.—There is a great demand for mechanics in Omaha....A train of 29 wagons loaded with Indian goods for the Ft. Laramie council passed Omaha on the 25th ult.....The Omaha Republican of the 26th ult. says: Intelligence was received in this city to-day that the steamer Dadora, bound for the mountains, was burned about three hundred miles above our port. The date of the disaster, and cause, we have been unable to ascertain.....The Atchison Champion of the 30th ult. says: Gilbert & Sons, of Great Salt Lake City, Utah, have just finished loading a train of thirty-one wagons with assorted merchandize, and it starts for the city of the saints to-day. Their train is one of the handsomest outfits we have seen for a long time.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—The Gould & Curry Company declares a dividend for the month of $80 per foot.

The Stockton Theater has opened with a dramatic company, consisting of Geo. Pauncefort, Mrs. Geo. Pauncefort, Miss Frances Gass, Miss Mattie Field, Harry Brown, George Edmunds, J. Paulin, Charles Evans, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Alexander.

Brevet Lieut. Col. E. D. Baker, son of the late Gen. E. D. Baker, has been appointed a Paymaster for California.

The Quincy Chronicle of June 3d says: We learn that two of the richest quartz leads ever struck in this country were discovered at Railroad Flat, one day last week.

Gen. Rosecrans is expected to make San Diego, Cal., his home hereafter.

A Monitor to go to Europe.

The continued carpings of the foreign press, especially that of England, against the American or monitor system of ironclads, and their assertions that such vessels could never cross the ocean, and were entirely useless in a heavy sea, are about to be disproved by a practical test. An opportunity has been afforded by the passage of the joint resolution congratulating the Emperor and the people of Russia on the escape of that sovereign from assassination, and Captain G. V. Fox, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, has been deputed to convey the resolution to Russia and present it to the Czar. He will proceed thither in the monitor Miantonomah, sister ship to the Monadnock, which has recently made such a successful trip round Cape Horn to Valparaiso, on her way to San Francisco. After performing his errand to the Czar Captain Fox will take the Miantonomah to most of the principal European seaports for the purpose of examining the present condition of the navies of the Powers. The sight of such a vessel will do much to create a wholesome appreciation of the power of the American navy and the genius of the American people in conceiving and consummating such a work.—Carney's Press.

Arrival of Gov. Blasdell.—Governor Blasdell reached this town on Saturday last, from Silver Springs, the locality of Brown's mill, and about fifty miles north of Silver Peak. The Governor will return to Virginia City via Walker Lake. Gov. Blasdell speaks favorably of the route over which he is confident a good practicable wagon road can be constructed within a distance of 300 miles. The party had a severe experience of deserts and mountains, hunger and thirst, and the vicissitudes of an everarying climate, since they first set out from Silver Peak. Gov. Blasdell is evidently in the enjoyment of robust health, but the wonted comliness of the outer man is somewhat marred, and his rawhide moccasins, travel-soiled apparel, and battered hat, recalled Ross Browne's sketch, in Harpers for June, of one of the candidates for Mayor of Austin. He will remain in town until to-morrow.—Reveille, 7th.
